

Chianti Classico

The Lamole di Lamole estate is truly a special place in the heart of Chianti Classico. The Romans first planted vines in this area over 700 years ago. Today, our organically managed vineyards are located on terraces at one of the highest points in Chianti Classico (at over 1,600 feet) and due to the resulting range of temperature, sunlight, and ventilation, we produce wines with remarkable elegance, richness and length. Wines as unique as those who drink them.
