

GIOVANNI ROSSO

For over 100 years, the Rosso family has woven its legacy through the heart of Serralunga d'Alba, one of the best terroirs in Barolo and the world. Under the leadership of Davide Rosso, the winemaking philosophy here transcends tradition, embracing Davide's believe that "the wine must be the perfect copy of its terroir."

Roero Arneis DOC

Characterful and balanced, Arneis is one of the most respected and distinctive white wines of the Barolo region.

'Donna Margherita' Barbera d'Alba DOC

Named after Davide's great aunt, this crisp and characterful red is the everyday wine of the Barolo region.

Langhe Nebbiolo DOC

This wine serves as an eloquent introduction to the complexity and elegance Piedmontese wines are celebrated for.

Barolo DOCG

The 'King of Wines and Wine of Kings' represents the pinnacle of Piedmont wines and is a narrative of the land it comes from.

